

Appendices Table of Contents

1. Legal Authorities
• MDCH	1-17
• MDA	18-19
2. Reportable Conditions	20-21
3. Forms	22
• IAMFES Form A, Food-Related Alert/Complaint – completed and blank	23-25
• IAMFES Form B, Foodborne, Waterborne, Enteric Illnesses Log	26
• IAMFES Form C1 and C2, Case History	27-28
• IAMFES Form D1 and D2, Case Histories Summary	29-30
• Health Department Environmental Health Division	31
• Termination Report: Short Form – completed and blank	32-33
• Outbreak Investigation Report	34-40
• CDC Form 52.13 – completed and blank	41-47
• Example Questionnaire	48-63
• MDCH GI Form – completed and blank	64-67
• Writing It Up!	68-69
• DCH 0583, Microbiology/Virology Test Requisition	70-71
• DCH 0567, Michigan Regional Laboratories Test Requisition	72
• DCH 1052, Multiple Patient/Sample – Same Test Requisition	73
4. Synopsis of Protocol for Foodborne Disease Investigations	74-76
5. Key Competencies for Successful Outbreak Investigations	77
6. Food Worker Exclusion / Restriction	78-81
7. CDC Recommendations for the Control of Foodborne Hepatitis A	82-85
8. Tracebacks	86-91
9. Recalls	92-107
10. Communications	108-110
11. Foodborne Illness Glossary	111-118
12. Why Foodborne Illness Investigations are Important	119-120
13. Roles and Responsibilities of MI organizations investigating outbreaks	121-125
14. Preparing an Effective Foodborne Illness Investigation Team	126-128
15. Interviewing	129-139
16. References	140-141
17. Quick & Dirty	1-24
18. IAMFES Flow Chart	